The Buzz

“Experiencing a cooking class as a band brought us together in a unique (delicious!) way. It helped us work on teamwork and relax.

This class was the perfect gift for my boyfriend's birthday. Sarah makes inspired, delicious dishes completely within reach for food lovers of various cooking skill levels.

-ALAINA D.

Sarah gave a fabulous cooking demonstration for my Piano Connect Virtual Retreat. Her warm and inviting presence was perfect for building community between sessions, and the recipes she provided for the attendees were phenomenal.

I would encourage any music teacher to consider Sarah's cooking classes as a way to give their students a unique hands-on learning experience!
